SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO BELLINGHAM EAGLES! DECEMBER 16TH

Holiday Bazaar

The ladies are off to a slow start because of weather and other circumstances, but hopes to gain speed in the next few weeks.

The Auxiliary has numerous items suitable for gifts as well as decorating your home. Stop by on Monday and do your holiday shopping.

Proceeds benefit Childrens Hospital, Seattle, children with HIV fund. This is the Washington State official fundraising project for the year.

KARAOKE NIGHT FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15 WITH DAN DEMANN

Karaoke Night with Dan is very popular. He is quite the entertainer. He is paid entirely by donation from the Members. This is a great and fun night for Eagle members, not to mention profitable for the lounge. If you sing, by all means bring your talent to the Club. If you don't sing, by all means come and be entertained.

The monthly mastheads for our newsletter are secret. I don't even know. Photos are mostly chosen for content and how they fit in the odd space. This month, snow is the topic. This is my backyard with my dog, Phoebe. I would like members to submit photos for the mastheads. If you have a good landscape-type photo about the Eagles, please send it to me at konnimaier@comcast.net.

BE A VOLUNTEER

Care to work at Safeco Field during a ball game? At just one game, Patrick Corcoran, Konni Maier, and Cynthia Bowen earned $180 ($60 each) for the Eagles Club in last year's Safeco Field volunteer program. Safeco Field hires non-profit groups to run their beer and concession stands. It's hard work but it is fun! Luanne Moore is the coordinator for District 4, which includes Bellingham. Safeco Field wants her to bring more volunteers next year, so she is already compiling a list. If you are interested in working a concession stand at Safeco Field on behalf of the Bellingham Eagles, please call Konni, 933-1231 or Cynthia, 312-6332.

Meet GRAHAM. He is 8th in a series of annual limited edition animals sold by Kay Jewelers to raise money for St Jude's Hospital. St Jude Charity Research Hospital helps children fight cancer and other catastrophic illnesses. Bellingham Eagles is happy to help. These little guys will be on sale through the Holidays. They are $11, which includes tax.
